

STUDENT RESUME SUCCESS CHECKLIST

7 Resume Mistakes That Are Costing Students Interviews

Why This Matters

Many students believe they are being rejected because of a lack of experience.

In reality, many resumes are rejected before recruiters even review the candidate properly.

Avoid these 7 mistakes to increase your chances of getting internship and job interview calls.

Mistake 1:

Using a Generic Resume for Every Job

Problem:

Sending the same resume to every company.

Why Recruiters Reject It:

The resume does not match the role requirements.

Solution:

Customize your resume for each internship or job application.

Focus on:

- Relevant skills
 - Relevant projects
 - Relevant achievements

Mistake 2:

Writing a Career Objective Nobody Cares About

Problem:

"I want a challenging position where I can grow."

Why Recruiters Reject It:

Generic and overused.

Solution:

Replace it with a professional summary.

Example:

"Computer Science student with hands-on experience in Python, AI tools, and web development seeking internship opportunities to apply technical and problem-solving skills."

Mistake 3:

Listing Skills Without Proof

Problem:

Claiming skills but showing no evidence.

Why Recruiters Reject It:

Anyone can write a skill.

Solution:

Support every skill with:

- Projects
- Certifications
- Achievements
- Practical work

Example:

Instead of:

Python

Write:

Python – Built an attendance management system using Python and MySQL.

Mistake 4:

Poor Resume Formatting

Problem:

Too many colors, fonts, designs, and graphics.

Why Recruiters Reject It:

Difficult to read.

Solution:

Use:

- Clean layout
- Consistent spacing
- Professional fonts
- Clear headings

Keep it simple.

Mistake 5:

Ignoring Projects Section

Problem:

Students leave projects empty.

Why Recruiters Reject It:

Projects demonstrate practical ability.

Solution:

Add at least:

- Academic Projects
- Personal Projects
- Freelance Projects
- AI Projects

Include outcomes and tools used.

Mistake 6:

Spelling and Grammar Errors

Problem:

Typos reduce credibility instantly.

Why Recruiters Reject It:

Shows lack of attention to detail.

Solution:

Proofread multiple times.

Use AI tools and grammar checkers before applying.

Mistake 7:

No Quantifiable Achievements

Problem:

Responsibilities without results.

Why Recruiters Reject It:

Recruiters want impact.

Solution:

Use numbers whenever possible.

Example:

Instead of:

Managed social media.

Write:

Created social media content that increased engagement by 35%.
